Auditing	AS Deloitte Audit Eesti (with Erki Usin as the leading auditor) has audited the Issuer’s annual financial report for the financial year ended on 31 December 2019. In the auditor’s report attached to the said financial report, AS Deloitte Audit Eesti stated that in their opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2019, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the Accounting Act and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) as adopted by the European Commission. In the above referred auditor’s report, AS Deloitte Audit Eesti brought out the following key auditing matter: “As at 31 December 2019 the carrying value of investment properties amounted to 147 365 thousand EUR and the fair value adjustment recorded in profit and loss and other comprehensive income for the year in respect of investment properties was 24 236 thousand EUR loss. Significant judgment is required by management in determining the fair value of investment property. The Group’s investment properties comprise various categories of properties, the most significant being properties held for lease and land plots for future development. The Group uses an independent appraiser to determine the fair values for all of the properties held in these categories. The inputs and assumptions with the most significant impact on these valuations are disclosed in Note 13, and include timing and costs of the potential developments, future rental and sales prices, timing of the revenue as well as the management’s ability to realize those assumptions in Group’s operations. Accordingly the valuation of investment properties is considered to be a key audit matter due to the significance of the balance to the consolidated financial statements as a whole, combined with the judgment associated with determining the fair value.” Furthermore, in the above referred auditor’s report, AS Deloitte Audit Eesti has emphasised the following: “We draw attention to Note 30 “Subsequent Events” in the financial statements, which disclose that Tallinna Moekombinaat AS, the subsidiary of Pro Kapital Grupp AS, has submitted application for reorganization proceedings to Harju County Court on 31 March 2020. On 3 April, the application was approved by the Court and by 2 June 2020 Tallinna Moekombinaat AS has to submit a reorganization plan to the Court. Pro Kapital Grupp AS ability to retain or lose control over the operations, assets and liabilities of Tallinna Moekombinaat AS depends on the outcome of the reorganization process. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.”

What are the key risks that are specific to the issuer?

Changes to the value and inaccuracy of the appraised value of the Group’s real estate portfolio	Decrease in property value of the portfolio impair the Group’s ability to maintain required real estate value may lead to the Group not meeting the financial covenants set out in loan agreements binding thereon.

Failure to raise additional financing or service outstanding indebtedness may result in the Group not being able to develop its projects according to its plans	The Company's cash flow from operating activities may become insufficient due to general economic and market conditions which, in turn, would influence the Company's ability to make payments on its indebtedness, potentially limiting its ability to obtain additional financing.
Redemption of the Secured Bonds	The Group's ability to successfully refinance the Secured Bonds is dependent upon the conditions of the capital markets and the Group's financial position at the time of redemption.
Risks related to reorganisation and potential insolvency of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat	The outcome of the pending reorganisation proceedings of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat (a material indirect subsidiary of the Issuer) is uncertain and there is a risk that the reorganisation proceedings will fail, in which case the bankruptcy of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat will ensue.
Risks related to COVID-19	The pandemic spread of the coronavirus causing the infectious disease COVID-19 during 2020 has had and may continue to have an adverse impact on the economy in the business segments and the markets in which the Group operates.
Risks related to the macroeconomic environment	Cyclical real estate development sector may undergo unfavourable developments due to macroeconomic environment (e.g. interest rates, unemployment, inflation, private consumption etc.) which may decrease the demand for residential properties and, therefore, have a negative impact on the Group's business and financial situation.
Risks related to real estate transactions and changing market conditions	Changes in market conditions could diminish the Group's opportunities for disposal of properties, result in higher than expected development costs, lower than expected rental rates and lower than expected disposal prices, all having a negative impact on the financial situation of the Group.
Risks related to a possible recession	The company's presales and sales may decrease in case of a recession in the market.
Competition from other market participants	Competition from other well-capitalised market participants may result in Company having to pay substantially more than planned for acquisitions of new properties or not being able to acquire the desired properties resulting in diminished opportunities for growth for the Group.
Changes in customer preferences in residential housing market	Residential housing market may change and no longer favour the Company's developments due to changing customer trends, demands and preferences potentially resulting in less apartment sales by the Group and negative impact on its financial situation.
Risks related to project completion delays	The forecasted project completion dates set by the Group may be delayed because of unexpected works, faults of construction companies and other circumstances, which may ultimately have a negative impact on the Group's financial situation.
Risks related to lease agreements	There is a risk that the quality of lease agreements signed of the Group are insufficient and the Group's rental income is subject to fluctuation of rental rates.
The Group may not be able to obtain necessary plans, permits and other authority approvals	Required authorisations or approvals relating to land may be withheld by the relevant authorities, may be delayed or disputed by third parties, the intended use of land the Company has acquired may be changed and compulsory purchases of land may take place, which circumstances may have a negative impact on the Group's business and financial situation.
The Group's operations are subject to taxation risks	Changes in corporate tax, income tax etc. taxation policy may increase the Group's tax burden.

Should the Company fail to fulfil its obligations arising from the Bonds, Investors will not be able to satisfy their claims against any collateral.

No events of default	The Terms and Conditions do not include any events of default and expressly exclude the right of the Investors to demand early redemption of the Bonds. This means that, unless otherwise provided under mandatorily applicable provisions of law, the Investors cannot demand early redemption of the Bonds.
Liquidity risk	Although the Issuer intends to apply for the listing of the Bonds in the Baltic Bond List of Nasdaq Tallinn regulated market, there is no guarantee that such listing will be approved. Also, even if the Bonds are listed, a liquid secondary market of the Bonds may not develop and, hence, the Investors might bear losses due to the inability to sell the Bonds on the secondary market or selling the Bonds at an unfavourable price.
Interest rate risk	Investors are exposed to the risk that the value of the Bonds may fall as a result of changes in the market interest rate. If the market interest rate increases, the market value of the Bonds may fall.
The Terms and Conditions of the Bonds may be modified	In accordance with the Terms and Conditions, Investors may approve amendments to the Terms and Conditions by way of an investors' resolution. Such amendments may include, among others, changes to the interest rate of the Bonds or the postponement of the Redemption Date s. 3. RISK FACTORS

3.1 Introduction

Investing in the Bonds entails various risks. Each prospective investor considering an investment in the Bonds should thoroughly consider all the information in this Prospectus, including the risk factors described below. Any of the risk factors described below, or additional risks which are currently not known to the Management or are not considered significant by the Management, could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, operations or prospects of the Company and the Group, and result in a decline in the value of the Bonds or the ability of the Company to service and redeem the Bonds in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. As a result, investors could lose a part or all of the value of their investment. The Management believes that the factors described below present the principal risks inherent in investing into the Bonds.

The purpose of this section is to enable a potential investor to assess the relevant risks related to their potential investment in the Bonds in order to make an informed investment decision. The below risk factors are therefore limited to risks that, in the meaning of the Prospectus Regulation are material and specific to the Group and the Bonds and which are corroborated by the content of a listing prospectus for the Bonds.

The manner in which the Company and the Bonds are affected by each risk factor is illustrated by way of an evaluation of the materiality of the relevant risk factor based on the probability of its occurrence and the expected magnitude of its negative impact if it would occur, for the purpose of which the probability is estimated as “low”, “medium” or “high” and the magnitude of negative impact is estimated as “low”, “medium” or “high”.

The risk factors are presented in categories and where a risk factor may be categorised in more than one category, such risk factor appears only once and in the most relevant category for such risk factor. The most material risk factor in a category is presented first under that category, the assessment of materiality of each risk factor is based on the probability of its occurrence and the potential magnitude of its negative impact. Subsequent risk factors in the same category are not ranked in order of materiality or probability of occurrence.

3.2 Risk Factors Specific and Material to the Company and the Group

3.2.1 Risks Related to the Group’s Financial Situation

Changes to the value and inaccuracy of the appraised value of the Group’s real estate portfolio

A large portion of the assets of the Group comprises of investment properties. The Group uses the fair value model in the valuation of its investment properties, whereupon fair value changes of investment properties are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income. As of 30 September 2020, the value of the Group’s investment properties amounted to EUR 144 million, i.e. constituting approximately 65.9 per cent of the total assets of the Group. In determination of the fair value, estimations of management, and if needed opinions of independent certified real estate appraisers, are used. Moreover, two different methods are used, depending on the circumstances: discounted cash flow method and comparative transaction price method. The valuation of the Group’s properties is thus inherently subjective due to the individual nature of each property and due to the valuation being based on a number of unconfirmed assumptions and a limited amount of public data and research. Any discrepancy in the actual circumstances as compared to the used assumptions and assessments could result in inaccuracy of the appraised value of the Group’s properties and, as a result, of the Group’s financial position.

Moreover, changes in the fair value of investment properties, as influenced by several factors, such as general and local economic conditions, interest rates, inflation expectations, market rent levels, vacancy rates, property investors’ yield requirements, and competition, constitute one of the Group’s short-term risks, which could impact the Group’s statement of comprehensive income and statement of financial position. As an example, as of 31 December 2019, the Group reported losses of EUR 24,236,000 from revaluation of investment properties, mainly due to a decrease in property value of and lower than expected operating results of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat (a material indirect Subsidiary of the Company).

This and any similar impact may as a result impair the Group's ability to incur or maintain required indebtedness and may also lead to the Group not meeting financial covenants set out in loan agreements (see also risk factor "Any failure to comply with various covenants arising from financing agreements may result in the Group losing its rights to its assets" below) and to carry out property development projects, which is a major part of the Group's day-to-day business.

Considering that, for the financial year 2019, the Group has reported a significant loss of EUR 29 million, mainly due to a decrease in property value in AS Tallinna Moekombinaat, the Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is high. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be medium.

Failure to raise additional financing or service outstanding indebtedness may result in the Group not being able to develop its projects according to its plans

When developing large scale real estate projects, significant external financing is required by the Group. The ratio of the Group's debt (total liabilities) to total assets was 72.3 per cent as of 30 September 2020, and the Group's total outstanding external debt amounted to approximately EUR 128.8 million (of which approximately EUR 90.3 million to credit institutions). The Group's bank loans are predominantly of medium-term duration, maturing within one to five years.

There is a risk that the Group may be unable to obtain sufficient financing on favourable terms, or at all, due to for example general economic and market conditions, financial and business factors, strict policies of the banks (e.g. related to presales or occupancy levels before construction), etc. If the Group fails in servicing, refinancing or restructuring its indebtedness or raise additional capital, it may not manage to implement its development projects pursuant to its plans, which may result in that such projects are not completed before the loans mature or that any increased costs due to such postponement are not covered by existing loans. This could in turn result in the Group becoming required to sell assets. Therefore, if internally generated cash flow or cash flow received from sales of developed real estate is less than anticipated or if money available from either local or global lenders is under liquidity pressures, it could have a material adverse effect on completion of the Group's current and planned real estate projects and expected results of such projects.

Moreover, existing indebtedness and need to raise additional financing may reduce the Group's flexibility in planning its business and implementing its projects and places the Group at a competitive disadvantage relative to its competitors with less indebtedness (see for example risk factor "Any failure to comply with various covenants arising from financing agreements may result in the Group losing its rights to its assets" below).

The circumstances brought out above may have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is low. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

A breach of financing agreements entered into by the Group may result in the Group losing its rights to its assets

As set out in the risk factor "Failure in raising additional financing or service outstanding indebtedness may result in the Group not being able to develop its projects according to its plans" above, the Group has raised significant external debt financing. The Group's financing agreements are secured by, inter alia, pledges over the shares of the Subsidiaries, mortgages over properties and by guarantees issued by the Company or other Group Companies. The financing agreements set out various undertakings and financial covenants, some of which are linked to the value of the Group's properties or to a Group Company's rental income, which at least in the short term could be negatively affected in case of a decline in the value of the Group's properties due to a decline in the property market as a whole or otherwise.

At the date of this Prospectus, the Company's material indirect Subsidiary AS Tallinna Moekombinaat is, inter alia, in payment default and in breach of certain covenants under a loan agreement for financing of the T1 Mall of Tallinn and reorganisation proceedings are ongoing (see risk factor "Risks related to ongoing reorganisation proceedings in AS Tallinna Moekombinaat" below). The main creditor of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat has already indicated that it intends to force AS Tallinna Moekombinaat into bankruptcy in case the reorganisation proceedings fail. This would result in the Group losing its rights to and ownership in the assets pledged in respect of the loan.

Besides the risks related to the financing of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat, there is always a risk that any other failure by the Group to comply with current or future financing agreements (i.e. unrelated to the T1 Mall of Tallinn financing agreement) could result in the relevant creditor accelerating loans prior to maturity and/or enforcing pledges over assets or guarantee commitments, resulting in the Group losing its rights to or ownership in the pledged assets. Failure by the Group to comply with certain covenants in the terms and conditions of the Secured Bonds could also trigger a cross-default¹ thereunder and, inter alia, lead to an acceleration of the obligations of the Group or the enforcement of the transaction security granted in connection with the Secured Bonds. Failure to comply with covenants arising from financing agreements could thus have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

Considering that the Company is already in breach of covenants contained in the T1 Mall of Tallinn loan agreement, the Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring in relation to the T1 Mall of Tallinn loan agreement is high, and otherwise medium. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

The Group is subject to interest rate risk

As of 30 September 2020, interest expense on financial debt accounted for in the Group's profit and loss statement was EUR 11 million. The interest rates of the loans taken by the Group from credit institutions are based on the EURIBOR base rate, which is determined as of the quotation date occurring periodically after the date of the relevant loan agreement. Increases in EURIBOR will lead to a corresponding increase in the financial costs and decrease in net profit of the Group. Assuming a 100 basis points rise in EURIBOR for existing agreements as of 30 September 2020, the interest expenses of the Group would increase by approximately EUR 149,600 and net profit would decrease by approximately EUR 149,600 per annum. The interest rates offered by credit institutions are also dependent on the general market situation and there is a risk that an economic downturn, especially in the Baltic region, would lead to increased interest expenses and thus have a negative effect on, inter alia, the Group's net profits.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is medium. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be medium.

Redemption of the Secured Bonds

On 20 February 2024, the Company shall be obliged to redeem all the Secured Bonds (for more information on the Secured Bonds, please see subsection "Secured Bonds" in Section 9.1 ("Material Agreements") below) not then redeemed. Upon redemption, the Company may (depending on its financial situation and preferences) need or prefer to obtain additional financing to fulfil its obligations to redeem the Secured Bonds. The Group's ability to successfully refinance the Secured Bonds is dependent upon the conditions of the capital markets and the Group's financial position at the time such refinancing is required or desirable, including at the time of an amortization or an exercise of a voluntary redemption or mandatory repurchase of the Secured Bonds. The Group's ability to refinance the Secured Bonds or other debt is also restricted by financing agreements of the ¹ AS Tallinna Moekombinaat has been excluded from the cross default provision in the terms and conditions of the Secured Bonds.

Group containing financial covenants, imposing restrictions in relation to the Group's debt financing arrangements.

In the event the Company is unable to refinance the Secured Bonds or other outstanding debt, or if such financing can only be obtained on unfavourable terms, this could have a significant adverse effect on the Company's ability to fulfil its obligations.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is medium. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

3.2.2 Risks Related to the Group's Business Activities and Industry

Risks related to ongoing reorganisation proceedings in AS Tallinna Moekombinaat

Due to a delay in completion of the T1 Mall of Tallinn and higher than predicted vacancy levels, the Company's material indirect Subsidiary AS Tallinna Moekombinaat has generated lower than expected rental income and cash flow. This has led to a decrease in the property value of T1 Mall of Tallinn and to AS Tallinna Moekombinaat not being able to comply with payment obligations and other provisions contained in material agreements entered into by the company.

As of 31 March 2020, AS Tallinna Moekombinaat had 70 creditors with a total of approximately EUR 7,000,000 of overdue debts. The main creditor is the lender under a secured loan agreement for financing of the T1 Mall of Tallinn, with a principal amount of EUR 75,356,000 on 31 March 2020. On 3 April 2020, Harju County Court in Estonia initiated reorganisation proceedings of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat. As at the date of this Prospectus, the outcome of such proceedings is still uncertain and there is a risk that the reorganisation proceedings will fail, in which case bankruptcy of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat will ensue. If this risk would materialise, it could have a material adverse effect on the value of the Group's assets (see risk factor "Any failure to comply with various covenants arising from financing agreements may result in the Group losing its rights to its assets" above) and potentially impact the Group's business and future cash flow. This in turn may have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

In the worst-case scenario, if the reorganization proceedings fail and AS Tallinna Moekombinaat goes bankrupt, AS Pro Kapital Eesti will have to record losses in the maximum amount of 26 million euros, which include losses from unpaid principal loan amounts in the amount of up to 22.2 million euros, unpaid interest balance in the amount of up to 3.0 million euros, unpaid invoices in the amount of up to 0.3 million euros and the portion of equity of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat in the amount of up to 0.2 million euros as at 30 September 2020. The total negative effect to the Group would be 39 million euros (including initial investment into the share capital of the Subsidiary). The bankruptcy of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat would not affect liquidity of the group nor the short-term cash flows of the Company. The situation would influence the long-term cash flows to the extent of loan and interest payments.

Should the reorganisation proceedings fail, AS Tallinna Moekombinaat will likely be declared bankrupt, as the main creditor Lintgen has submitted a bankruptcy petition regarding AS Tallinna Moekombinaat which has been suspended until the reorganization proceedings are terminated and a ruling on such termination has come into force.

The Company considers the probability of the above risks occurring to be medium. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

Risks related to COVID-19

The pandemic spread of the coronavirus causing the infectious disease COVID-19 during 2020 has had an adverse impact on the economy in the business segments and the markets in which the Group operates, especially the hotel operations. As an example, due to the emergency state declared in all countries of the Group's operations, the Group's hotel operations in Germany were closed from 21 March 2020 until 1 July 2020 and are closed again since 2 November 2020 until further notice. The Group's shopping centre T1 Mall of Tallinn in Estonia was partly closed from 27 March 2020 until 11 May 2020. The COVID-19 outbreak has thus already had and may also in the future have an adverse impact on the Group's business, results of operations and financial position.

Moreover, the pandemic and the actions taken to limit its spread is expected to have a continuing significant impact on the global economy as a whole and there is a risk that e.g. the Group's access to financing and the Group's financial performance will be adversely affected thereby. There is also a risk that the Covid-19 outbreak will lead to massive unemployment and difficulties for the Group's end customers in obtaining bank financing, which could in turn lead to a decreased demand for the Group's products. The COVID-19 pandemic may also result in disruption to the Group's suppliers and result in increased unavailability of staff, all of which could have a material adverse impact on the quality and continuity of the Group's property development and other operations, and on the reputation of the Group.

The extent of the adverse impact of the pandemic on the global economy and markets is currently subject to great uncertainty and will depend, in part, on the length and severity of the measures taken to limit the spread of the virus and, in part, on the size and effectiveness of the compensating measures taken by governments. As each such risk described above could have a material negative impact on the Group's business, results and financial position and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

Since the Group has already experienced some negative effects on its business, results and financial position as a result of the COVID-19 outbreak, the Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is high and the Company considers the potential negative impact of the risks to be medium.

Risks related to the macroeconomic environment

Real estate development is cyclical and tends to follow the general developments in the macroeconomic environment. Macroeconomic factors such as interest rates, unemployment, inflation, private consumption, capital expenditure, access to financing, infrastructural and demographical changes and other macroeconomic indicators may have significant influence on real estate developments and hence on the operations of the Group. In view of the Group's indebtedness level, the Group is especially affected by e.g. an increase in interest rates (see also the risk factor "Interest rate risk" above), which would increase the Group's financial costs and decrease its net profits.

Moreover, any decrease of the substantial purchasing capability of permanent residence and increase of the interest rates for mortgage loans could decrease the demand for the Group's real estate and hotel services and have a negative impact to the Group's operating activities, decreasing the sales and rent income as well the gain from development activities, property management services and hotel operations. Furthermore, any decrease in private consumption and the financial capacity of the households could impair the demand for shopping and entertainment and thus have a negative impact on the value of the Group's largest asset, the T1 Mall of Tallinn.

The circumstances referred to above may have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

Save for as a result of the COVID-19 outbreak (see risk factor "Risks related to COVID-19" above), the Company considers the probability of several macroeconomic factors that may have a material adverse effect on the Group's operations, results and financial position occurring to be low. However, the probability that some negative macroeconomic factors occur is deemed to be medium. The negative effect of such factors depends on the macroeconomic factor and its severity. For instance, the potential negative impact from increased market interest rates or deteriorated access to financing is considered to be medium, while the potential negative impact from demographic changes alone is considered to be low.

Risks related to real estate transactions and changing market conditions

The Group's operations are focused on real estate development and thus, the Group is from time to time involved in acquisitions and divestments of properties. In accordance with its strategy, the Group has in the past sold properties in part or in full, and is continuously considering the divestment of properties when properties have been fully developed. There is a risk that changes in market conditions could result in diminished opportunities for disposal of desired properties, higher than expected development costs, lower than expected rental rates and lower than expected disposal prices. The value and price of the properties is influenced by several factors, such as general economic conditions, interest rates, inflation expectations, investor yield requirements and competitive dynamics (see risk factors "Changes to the value and inaccuracy of the appraised value of the Company's real estate portfolio" and "Risks related to the macroeconomic environment" above). As the Group is a real estate developer, diminished opportunities for acquiring desired properties, higher than expected development costs or delayed disposal of properties could slow the growth of the Group and have a material adverse effect on the Group's earnings, business and results of operations. This in turn may increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is medium. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

Possible recession in the real estate market

There is a risk that the Company's presales and sales will decrease if there is a recession situation in the market. This would impact the Company's ability to pay to its contractors and cooperation partners, payback of short loans and other financial covenants and finances of the Company in general.

The Company considers the occurrence probability of this risk to be medium. If the risk would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

Competition from other market participants

There is a risk that competition from other well-capitalised market participants the Company has to pay substantially more than planned for new acquisitions or is not able to acquire the desired properties at all, or the Company's projects may be less successful than planned due to competitor projects being more successful or due to competitors having better access to financing or having attracted necessary (international) investments or funding or due to relatively recently developer projects seized and being sold by the banks.

This could result in diminished opportunities for growth, which could have an adverse effect on the Company's financials and ultimately the bottom line. The Company considers the the probability of this risk occurring as medium. If the risk would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

Changes in customer preferences in residential housing market

There is a risk that the residential housing market could change and no longer favour the Company's developments due to changing customer trends, demands and preferences, which vary due to economic factors and customer preferences for the style of developments. Additionally, there is a risk that the Company will be unable to recognise such changes or adapt to them in its existing developments in time.

This in turn could cause less apartment sales than budgeted, which could have an adverse effect on business, operating results and financial condition of the Company. The Company considers the probability of this risk occurring as low. If the risk would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be medium.

The Group relies on third party building contractors

The Group relies on third party building contractors. If the Group cannot enter into or maintain existing design and construction agreements with third party building contractors at acceptable terms, or if the building contractors breach such agreements or their obligations under mandatory law (such as the constructor's requirement to have a liability insurance policy during all term of validity of a construction permit), the Group may incur additional costs, suffer losses or lose planned income. A contractor's or subcontractor's failure to perform may also result in legal action by the Group to rescind the construction agreement or to enforce the contractor's obligations, and may result in delay in the completion of the relevant development project. This could increase the construction costs and thus have a material adverse effect on the Group's results of operations and financial condition.

Furthermore, as the Group also operates in Lithuania, the Group is subject to a risk arising from Lithuanian law, which provides that in case of a bankruptcy or liquidation of the contractor, the developer of the real estate project in Lithuania would be held liable against purchasers of the real estate for any defects that emerge during the applicable guarantee period in case of default of the contractor. Thus, in case of bankruptcy or liquidation of any Lithuanian building contractors of the Group, the Group may be held liable and incur additional and unexpected costs.

The circumstances referred to above may have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is low. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be medium.

Risks related to project completion delays

There is a risk that forecasted project completion is delayed because of unexpected works, fault of construction company (e.g. lack of subcontractors, delays in arrival of materials).

This can cause claims from the buyers of properties/apartments and for the Company not to meet targeted financial goals and impact on financial results. The Company considers the probability of the these risks occurring as low and the potential negative impact as medium.

Risks related to lease agreements

The success of the Group's real estate development projects, such as shopping centres, depends highly on the terms of the lease agreements concluded by the Group. The Group's lease agreements are standardised and divided into two categories: fixed-term lease agreements and lease agreements entered into for an unspecified term. A vast majority of the Group's existing leases are signed for five years and expire in November 2023 or in 2024 and there is a risk that the Group will not be able to renew such agreements at acceptable terms or at all. In order to prevent tenants from terminating lease agreements, the Group has been, and may also in the future be, forced to reduce the rent. Moreover, lease agreements entered into for an unspecified term involve a risk that a large number of such agreements are terminated within a short period of time. If any of the above-mentioned risks were to materialise this could lead to a reduction of the Group's rental income and cash flow. This in turn could have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is high. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be medium.

Project risks

The Group develops a rather small number of large projects, mainly in Tallinn (Estonia), Riga (Latvia) and Vilnius (Lithuania). Concentration on a small number of projects in a specific geographic area could increase the volatility of the Group's results and also increase the Group's exposure to risks relating to each of the Group's development projects as well as the geographic markets in which the Group operates. The possibility of implementing development projects with financial profitability depends on several factors, such as the ability to retain and recruit necessary expertise within, inter alia, construction, project planning, architecture and marketing, and to obtain necessary permits and authority approvals and procuring contracts for project implementation on acceptable terms. Furthermore, the Group's development of properties is dependent on a continuous supply of and financing of new projects on acceptable terms, and that the Group's projects adequately respond to the market demand and should the Group be unsuccessful in this, it could have an adverse impact on the Group's profitability.

The Group develops its properties on the basis of business plans elaborated for its respective properties. Such plans are inter alia based on forecasts of future circumstances. Long duration of the projects aggravates forecasting future costs, income, prices, necessity for financing and its availability and other similar circumstances relating to development projects. If the Group's forecasts are inaccurate it could lead to unexpected costs for the projects, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's results and financial conditions. It could also lead to the Group breaching covenants contained in project development financing agreements (see risk factor "Any failure to comply with various covenants arising from financing agreements may result in the Group losing its rights to its assets" above). Also delays in projects may decrease profitability and has done so in the past, most recently related to the T1 Mall of Tallinn.

The circumstances referred to above may have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers the probability of the above risks occurring to be low. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

Dependence on subsidiaries

The Company is a holding company, which conducts its business through, and does not own significant assets other than, its subsidiaries located in Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and Germany. To make payments under the Bonds, the Company is dependent on the receipt of funds from its subsidiaries. However, the Company's subsidiaries are legally separate and distinct from the Company and have no obligation to pay amounts due with respect to the Company's obligations and commitments, including the Bonds, or to make funds available for such payments. The ability of the Company's subsidiaries to make such payments to the Company is subject to, among other things, the availability of funds, rules on financial assistance in the relevant jurisdictions in which the subsidiaries are incorporated and the terms of relevant loan agreements entered into by such subsidiaries. Should the Company not receive sufficient income from its subsidiaries, the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is low. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be medium.

Structural subordination and insolvency of subsidiaries

The Company's subsidiaries have incurred, and may from time to time incur additional, indebtedness. In the event of insolvency, liquidation or a similar event relating to one of the Company's subsidiaries, all creditors of such company would be entitled to payment in full out of the assets of such company before the Company, as a shareholder, would be entitled to any payments. Thus, the Bonds are structurally subordinated to the liabilities of such subsidiaries. There is a risk that the Company and its assets would not be protected from actions by the creditors of a subsidiary, whether under bankruptcy law, by contract or otherwise.

In addition, defaults by, or the insolvency of, certain subsidiaries of the Group may result in the obligation of the Group to make payments under financial or performance guarantees in respect of such companies' obligations or the occurrence of cross-defaults on certain borrowings of the Group, which could lead to material costs and/or loss of assets for the Group.

Further, the Group operates in various jurisdictions and in the event of bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, dissolution, re-organisation or similar proceedings involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries, bankruptcy laws of other countries could apply. The outcome of insolvency proceedings in foreign jurisdictions is difficult to predict and could have a material and adverse effect on the potential recovery in such proceedings.

The circumstances referred to above may have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is low. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

3.2.3 Legal and Regulatory Risks

The Group may not be able to obtain necessary plans, permits and other authority approvals

As a real estate developer, the Group is dependent on obtaining necessary plans, permits and other authority approvals. In order to develop real estate, which is the Group's core business, a zoning plan must have been adopted for respective land unit specifying inter alia the intended use(s) of the land unit, the maximum permitted number of buildings thereon, the maximum area to be occupied by the buildings and the maximum permitted height of the buildings. A valid building permit must also be obtained in order to start constructing. The Group may also need to obtain other permits and authorisations. If any of the abovementioned zoning plans, building permit or other necessary permits or authorisations are not obtained at all or are not obtained on terms and conditions suitable for the planned development activities, or if any such plan, permit or authorisation is insufficient or is amended in a way not suitable for the planned development activities, there is a risk that the Group's development projects will be delayed or that the Group will have to abandon the projects and sell the land at a sales price lower than the purchase price. This may have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is medium. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be medium.

Risks relating to doing business in the Baltic States

Compared to more mature markets, Estonian, Latvian and Lithuanian markets are subject to greater risks, including legal, economic and political risks. In relation to their accession to the European Union, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania have implemented significant social and economic changes and reformed their legal and regulatory framework. This has resulted in considerable increase in the volume of Estonian, Latvian and Lithuanian legislation and other regulations. Some courts' administration as well as judicial practices have evolved. However, any change in such practices or in the legislation could lead to increased costs for the Group and/or limit the Group's possibility to conduct its business as planned. As an example, due to recent regulatory changes in Latvia it is no longer possible to divide residential houses into apartment properties if several houses have been built on one land plot, which significantly aggravates the Group's development of residential buildings in Latvia.

Further, due to the changed global geopolitical situation, possible conflicts around the world, the current macroeconomic and political events in some countries beyond EU, applied sanctions by the EU and counter-sanctions applied by e.g. Russia, the Group is exposed to additional political and economic risks that could have a negative impact on the Group's ability to conduct its business operations in the same way as on the date of this Prospectus.

The circumstances brought out above may have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is low. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be medium.

The Group's operations are subject to taxation risks

The Group conducts business in a number of countries. There is a risk that the Group's assessment of the tax legislation is incorrect or that the tax legislation changes, possibly with retroactive effect. Changes to taxes such as corporate tax, value added tax, income tax and other governmental charges as well as changes to and/or new tax laws and regulations lead to unexpected costs or limitations that could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business and results from operations.

Further, the Group has carried out a significant number of intra-group transactions and contractual arrangements (such as lease, credit and service agreements between the Group Companies). The Group is therefore subject to a transfer pricing risk in relation to any transactions between related parties that are not conducted on an arm's length basis. This could involve an adjustment to the tax results for entities involved to take account of arm's length pricing, which could lead to additional taxes and fees being imposed on the Group.

Transactions with related as well as unrelated parties carries a risk of requalification, should the tax authority challenge the economic substance of the transactions, e.g. under the "substance-over-form" rules. Considering the wide interpretation given to "substance-over-form" rules by the Estonian, Latvian and Lithuanian tax authorities in various cases, requalification of transactions and corresponding adjustment of tax results, such as prohibition to deduct input value added tax or additional income tax charge, could lead to additional taxes and fees being imposed on the Group.

The circumstances referred to above may have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is medium. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be medium.

The Group's operations are subject to environmental risks

The Group's activities are subject to laws and regulations relating to environmental protection including inter alia waste handling, contamination of soil, protection of ambient air and use of water. Pursuant to environmental laws, a property owner is often held liable for pollution found in such property even if the property was polluted before its acquisition and the owner did not know that at the time of acquisition. Hence, there is a risk that the Group Companies will be liable for decontamination of land plots currently or previously owned, or to be acquired, due to such land having latent defects. This may also lead to disputes between the Group and contractual counterparties. Since the Group has not always included environmental warranties in its purchase agreements, the Group may not be entitled to claim for clean-up costs and damages from any third party.

The historic background of some of the Group's land units refers to possibility of pollution, e.g. (i) the territory of Tondi Quarter has been a part of Soviet army campus; (ii) the property of Šaltinių Namai Residential Complex has been a part of the machinery factory; (iii) hazardous waste containers of industrial buildings were located in the property of Zvaigznes Centre; and (iv) the property of Kalaranna Residential Complex has historically been a fishing harbour and a marketplace. Furthermore, in Tondi Quarter a minor pollution was discovered in 2014, resulting in clean-up costs of approximately EUR 60,000.

Any environmental pollution of the Group's properties could adversely affect the Group's ability to sell or lease property and to use its properties as planned. It could also expose the Group to claims from customers or third parties for personal injury or property damage associated with exposure to pollution and lead to clean-up costs. This could have a negative effect on the Group's financial position and results of operations and thereby, increase the risk that the Company may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is low. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be low.

3.3 Risk Factors Specific and Material to the Bonds

Early redemption risk

In accordance with the Terms and Conditions, the Bonds may be redeemed prematurely on the initiative of the Company. Section 7.2. of the Terms and Conditions provides that the Company may, at its sole discretion, redeem the Bonds fully or partially before the Redemption Date by notifying the Investors thereof at least 15 (fifteen) Business Days prior to the date of the early redemption, provided that the Company has fully redeemed the Secured Bonds (for more information on the Secured Bonds, please see subsection "Secured Bonds" in Section 9.1 ("Material Agreements") below) before the date of the early redemption or obtained a waiver from the holders of the Secured Bonds.

If such early redemption right is exercised by the Company, the rate of return from an investment into the Bonds may be lower than initially anticipated. Also, the Investors might not have an option to invest in financial instruments offering the similar risk/return characteristics at the time of the early redemption or could face additional costs in selecting a new investment. Lastly, it is possible that the market value of the Bonds may be higher than the amounts payable to the Investors upon early termination in accordance with the Terms and Conditions.

The Company may not be able to refinance the Bonds

Upon the Redemption Date (i.e. on 31 October 2024), the Company shall be obliged to redeem all Bonds (unless they are redeemed earlier). Upon redemption, the Company may (depending on its financial situation and preferences) need or prefer to obtain additional financing to fulfil its obligations to redeem the Bonds (i.e. refinance the Bonds). The Group's ability to successfully refinance the Bonds is dependent upon the conditions of the capital markets and the Group's financial position at the time such refinancing is required or desirable, including at the time of an amortization or an exercise of a voluntary redemption or mandatory repurchase of Bonds. The Group's ability to refinance the Bonds or other debt is also restricted by financing agreements of the Group containing financial covenants, imposing restrictions in relation to the Group's debt financing arrangements. In the event the Company is unable to refinance the Bonds or other outstanding debt, or if such financing can only be obtained on unfavourable terms, this could have a significant adverse effect on the Company's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Terms and Conditions and arising from the Bonds.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is low. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

No collateral as security for the Bonds

No collateral has been established and is intended to be established as security for the fulfilment of the Company's obligations under the Bonds. Thus, should the Company fail to fulfil its obligations under the Bonds,

Investors could not satisfy their claims on account of any collateral and could only demand fulfilment of the obligations under the Bonds from the Company.

This means that in the event of bankruptcy, reorganisation or winding-up of the Company, the Investors would receive satisfaction of their claims from the Company only after the claims of priority creditors have been satisfied and amounts mandatorily preferred by law have been paid in full, pari passu with other unsecured and unsubordinated creditors. There is no guarantee that in such circumstance the Company's bankruptcy estate shall have sufficient assets to satisfy all obligations towards the Investors and the Investors may thus lose all or part of their investment.

The Company considers that the probability of the above risks occurring is low. If the risks would materialise, the Company considers the potential negative impact to be high.

No Events of Default

The Terms and Conditions of the Bonds do not include any events of default and expressly exclude the right of the Investors to demand early redemption of the Bonds. This means that unless otherwise provided under mandatorily applicable provisions of Estonian law, the Investors cannot demand early redemption of the Bonds. The absence of any events of default from the Terms and Conditions and exclusion of the right to demand early redemption may make it less likely that the Investors will recoup their investment in full in the event that the Company experiences financial distress.

Liquidity Risk

Although the Company intends to apply for the listing of the Bonds in the Baltic Bond List of Nasdaq Tallinn regulated market, there is no guarantee that such listing shall be approved and the Bonds will be listed. Even if the Bonds are listed, and even more so in case they are not listed, a liquid secondary market for the Bonds is not guaranteed. Investors might bear a loss due to not being able to sell the Bonds on the secondary market or having to have to sell them at an unfavourable price.

Interest Rate Risk

The Bonds bear interest on their outstanding Nominal Amount at a fixed interest rate of 8% (eight per cent) per annum. Investors are exposed to the risk that the value of the Bonds may fall as a result of changes in the market interest rate. While the nominal rate of interest on the Bonds is fixed until their redemption, the prevailing capital market rates change on a daily basis. If the market interest rate increases, the market value of the Bonds may fall.

The Terms and Conditions of the Bonds may be Modified

In accordance with Clause 10 of the Terms and Conditions, the Investors may approve amendments to the Terms and Conditions by an investors' resolution (the "Investors' Resolution"). Such amendments may include, inter alia, changes to the interest rate of the Bonds, postponement of the Redemption Date or increasing the maximum total denomination value of the Bonds and the maximum amount of the Bonds over the limits prescribed in Section 3.3. of the Terms and Conditions.

An Investors' Resolution for amending the Terms and Conditions is deemed to have been adopted and the respective amendment to the Terms and Conditions approved by the Investors on the last day of the voting deadline if at least 50% of all votes represented by the Bonds are in favour of such amendment.

If adopted in accordance with the majority brought out above, the amendment to the Terms and Conditions shall be binding on all Investors, regardless of whether they participated in voting on the Investors' Resolution and regardless of how they voted. Any change to the Terms and conditions may have an adverse effect on the rights of the Investors and the value of the Bonds.

Taxation Risk

Adverse changes in the tax regime applicable in respect of transacting with the Bonds or receiving interest or principal payments based on the Bonds may result in an increased tax burden of the Investors and may therefore have adverse effect on the rate of return from the investment into the Bonds.

No Ownership Rights

An investment into the Bonds is an investment into debt instruments, which does not confer any legal or beneficial interest in the equity of the Company or any of other member of the Group or any voting rights or rights to receive dividends or other rights which may arise from equity instruments. The Bonds represent a debt obligation of the Company, granting the Investors only such rights as set forth in the Terms and Conditions. The value of the Bonds be affected by the actions of the shareholders of the Company over which the Investors do not have control.

3.4 Risk factors specific and material to the Listing and Admission to Trading

Price Risk

The Bonds will be offered by the Company at the price equal to their nominal value with a certain fixed coupon rate. However, in the secondary market the price of the Bond may decrease due to market situation or events related to the Company. Besides the activities of the Company, the value of the Bonds may be affected by the developments in financial markets and when the interest rates are rising, the value of the Bonds may fall.

Negative or Insufficient Analyst Coverage

There is no guarantee of continued (or any) analyst research coverage for the Company. Over time, the amount of third-party research available in respect of the Company may increase or decrease with little or no correlation with the actual results of its operations, as the Company has no influence on the analysts who prepare such reports. Negative or insufficient third-party reports would be likely to have an adverse effect on the market price and the trading volume of the Bonds.

4.2 Taxation

Introductory remarks

The purpose of this section is to give an overview of the tax regime applicable to the Investors and the Company. The below summary is in no way exhaustive and is not meant to constitute professional advice to any person. Tax legislation of the Investor's residency and of the Company's country of incorporation may have an impact on the income received from the Bonds. In order to establish particular tax consequences of the ownership of the Bonds, each individual investor is advised and strongly encouraged to seek specialist assistance.

Capital gains from sale or exchange of Bonds

Gains realised by an Estonian resident individual are taxable on a cash-basis. Upon the sale or exchange of securities (including the Bonds) gains are subject to income tax at the rate of 20%. Since all earnings of resident legal persons, including capital gains, are taxed only upon distribution of profits, capital gains realised by resident legal persons are not subject to immediate taxation. As a rule, capital gains received by non-residents from the sale or exchange of securities are not taxed in Estonia. The non-resident Investors receiving capital gains from the sale or exchange of the Bonds may be subject to declaring and paying income tax in their respective countries of residence. For the purposes of capital gains taxation, the gain derived from the sale of securities (including the Bonds) is the difference between the acquisition cost and the sales price of such securities. The gain derived from the exchange of securities is the difference between the acquisition cost of securities subject to exchange and the market price of the property received as the result of the exchange. The expenses directly related to the sale or exchange of shares may be deducted from the gains but are generally rather limited.

Taxation of Interest

Estonian resident individuals are subject to paying income tax (20%) on the interest received from loans, securities (including the Bonds) and other debt obligations. Therefore, interest (coupon payments) received by Estonian resident individuals from the Bonds is subject to income tax in Estonia. Income tax is withheld by the payor unless the resident individual notifies the Issuer that Bonds were acquired from funds held in the investment account. Since all earnings of resident legal persons are taxed only upon distribution (as described below), interest received by Estonian resident legal persons is not subject to immediate taxation. As a rule, interest payments received by non-residents are exempt in Estonia (i.e. no withholdings are made). However, non-resident Investors receiving interest from the Bonds may be subject to declaring and paying income tax in their respective countries of residence.

Investment Account

Individuals may defer the taxation of their investment income by using an investment account (in Estonian: investeerimiskonto) for the purposes of making transactions with financial assets (including the Bonds). An investment account is a monetary account opened with a European Economic Area or the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) member state credit institution, through which the transactions with the financial assets, taxation of income from which (e.g. capital gains, interest, etc.) a person wants to defer, shall be made. The moment of taxation of the financial income held on an investment account is postponed until such income is withdrawn from the investment account (i.e. the amount withdrawn from the account exceeds the amount which had been previously paid into the account). Therefore, financial income held at the investment account may be reinvested tax-free until it is withdrawn from the account.

Corporate Income Tax

The system of taxation of corporate income currently in force in Estonia differs from the traditional model of corporate income taxation in that it shifts the point of corporate taxation from the moment of earning to the moment of distribution. Therefore, in Estonia corporate income tax is charged only on the distributed profit with the reinvested profits remaining untaxed until distribution. Corporate income tax is charged on profit distributions such as dividends, payments in the course of the reduction of share capital and acquisition of treasury shares when in excess of equity contributions, as well as on implicit distributions such as fringe benefits, gifts and donations, expenditures and payments not related to the business activities of a company. All of the above profit distributions are taxed at the rate of 20/80 (25%) of the net amount of the distribution, i.e. 20% of the gross amount of the distribution. The corporate income tax charged on above profit distributions is payable only at the company level with the company being responsible for calculating, declaring and paying of the respective corporate income tax. Corporate income tax imposed on distributed profit is not a withholding tax and thus is not influenced by the applicable international tax treaties. Payments made in the course of the reduction of share capital and redemption of shares are taxable at the company level only to the extent such payments exceed the monetary and in-kind contributions previously made by the shareholders into the company.

Furthermore, regularly distributed dividends are subject to lower income tax rate of 14/86 (16.28%) of the net payment, i.e. 14% on the gross amount of profit distribution. The lower income tax rate on the regularly distributed dividends applies to dividends that are paid in the amount not exceeding the average amount of the taxed dividends (taxed with 20% or 14% rate) in the previous three years. If the lower rate is applicable upon distribution of dividends and the recipient is an individual (including both resident and non-resident), additional income tax is withheld in the amount of 7% (unless a tax treaty provides more favourable tax rate). No withholding tax applies if the dividend recipient is a corporate shareholder (including both resident and non-resident).

The Company is applying for the Listing of the Bonds, to fulfil its obligation to make such application, as provided in the Terms and Conditions.

Rental

The Company's operations within the rental segment mainly consist of lease of retail and office premises. Rental revenues significantly increased during 2019, as it was the first full year when the shopping and entertainment centre T1 Mall of Tallinn was opened. For the financial year 2019, the rental segment accounted for approximately 17.3 per cent of the Group's consolidated revenue.

Hotel operations

In 2019 the Group operated only one hotel, PK Parkhotel Kurhaus in Bad Kreuznach, in Germany. The share of the hotel operations segment as a percentage of total revenues of the Group was 7.1 per cent for the financial year 2019.

Maintenance and other services

The Group provides maintenance and other services to its sold and rented out apartments. However, maintenance services are mainly provided to tenants and therefore maintenance revenue is correlated to the rental area. For the financial year 2019, the Group's maintenance business line accounted for only approximately 0.6 per cent of the Group's consolidated revenue.

6.5 Share Capital, Shares and Ownership Structure

As at 30 September 2020 the Company had 56,687,954 shares, each with a nominal value of EUR 0.2, and a registered share capital of EUR 11,337,590.80. The holders of the convertible bonds are entitled to convert each convertible bond to one share of the Company. Considering the identity of the holders of convertible bonds, a conversion into shares in the Company of each convertible bond outstanding would not result in a significant change in the ownership structure of the Company. In accordance with clause 7.2. of the terms and conditions of the convertible bonds (as amended on 14.08.2012), in order to subscribe for the Company's shares and exchange the convertible bonds for the Company's shares, a bondholder must submit a respective exchange application to the Company at least 10 (ten) business days before the date he wishes to convert the bonds to shares, provided the exchange date is a working day and provided that the last possible exchange date is the maturity date.

The Company's shares have been traded on the secondary list of Nasdaq Tallinn since 23 November 2012, on the main list of Nasdaq Tallinn since 19 November 2018 (ticker: PKG1T) and on Frankfurt's stock exchange trading platform Quotation Board since 13 March 2014.

As at 31 December 2020 there were 388 shareholders registered in the Company's shareholders' register. Many of the registered shareholders are nominee companies, which represent multiple non-resident investors. As at 31 December 2020, shareholders holding more than 5 per cent of the shares in the Company were:

Nordea Bank Finland Plc Clients	4,787,996	8.45%
Svalbork Invest OÜ	3,759,620	6.63%

The largest indirect shareholders of the Company are Ernesto Preatoni and his affiliates. Based on the information at the possession of the Company as of 31 December 2020, Ernesto Preatoni and his affiliates control 45.99% of the shares of the Company.

The Company has not been notified of by any person, other than Ernesto Preatoni and his affiliates, of holding more than 5 per cent of the shares in the Company through the nominee accounts of Raiffeisen Bank International AG, Clearstream Banking Luxembourg S.A. Clients or Nordea Bank Finland Plc Clients.

To ensure that the control over the Company is not abused, the Company complies with the Estonian Commercial Code (In Estonian: äriseadustik) and the Estonian Securities Market Act (In Estonian: väärtpaberitururu seadus). In addition, the Company acts in compliance with the rules of Tallinn Stock Exchange and with the Estonian Corporate Governance Code, as adopted by the EFSA.

6.6 Shareholders' Agreements

As far as the Company is aware, there are no shareholders' agreements or other agreements which could result in a change of control of the Company.

6.7 Recent Events

Except for the issuance of the Secured Bonds (for more information on the Secured Bonds, please see subsection "Secured Bonds" in Section 9.1 ("Material Agreements") below) and the redemption in full of the Company's previous secured bonds 2015/2020 (ISIN SE0006504379), there have been no recent events particular to the Company, which are to a material extent relevant to the evaluation of the Company's solvency.

6.8 Adverse Changes and Trend Information

The main adverse development since the date of publication of its last Audited Financial Statements is the pandemic spread of the disease COVID-19. COVID-19 is a great concern to the world as a whole, not only due to its impact on people's lives and habits but also in terms of the impact on society as well as the future economic development. The full economic impact of the disease is not yet known and is difficult to estimate due to the high degree of uncertainty surrounding the situation. However, while the spread of COVID-19 has had a significant influence on the Group's hotel operations and the retail business of T1 Mall of Tallinn, construction of the Group's ongoing projects has not been halted but has been proceeding as planned. Please see the risk factor "Risks related to COVID-19" in Section 3 ("Risk Factors") above for more details.

There have been no significant changes in the financial position or financial performance of the Group since the end of the last financial period for which the Group has published interim financial information. However, as announced by way of a market announcement made by the Company on 3 April 2020 (please see the risk factor "Risks related to ongoing reorganisation proceedings in AS Tallinna Moekombinaat" in Section 3 ("Risk Factors") above and Sections 9.2 ("Regulatory Disclosures") and 6.9 ("Legal and arbitration proceedings") below for more details), Harju County Court has initiated reorganisation proceedings with respect to the Company's material indirect Subsidiary AS Tallinna Moekombinaat, following an application made by AS Tallinna Moekombinaat on 31 March 2020 for commencement of reorganisation proceedings. The purpose of the proceedings is for AS Tallinna Moekombinaat to overcome temporary liquidity issues, reasonably reorganise liabilities and increase profitability. The reorganisation proceedings involve AS Tallinna Moekombinaat only and therefore have no direct influence on the Company or any other part of the Group. However, in the worst-case scenario, if the reorganization proceedings fail and AS Tallinna Moekombinaat goes bankrupt, AS Pro Kapital Eesti will have to record losses in the maximum amount of 26 million euros, which include losses from unpaid principal loan amounts in the amount of up to 22.2 million euros, unpaid interest balance in the amount of up to 3.0 million euros, unpaid invoices in the amount of up to 0.3 million euros and the portion of equity of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat in the amount of up to 0.2 million euros as at 30 September 2020. The total negative effect to the Group would be 39 million euros (including initial investment into the share capital of the Subsidiary). The bankruptcy of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat would not affect liquidity of the group nor the short-term cash flows of the Company. The situation would influence the long-term cash flows to the extent of loan and interest payments.

In addition, the Group's hotel operations in Germany were closed from 21 March 2020 until 1 July 2020 and are closed again since 2 November 2020 until further notice as a result of restrictions imposed for combating the pandemic of COVID-19.

Other than as brought out above, the Company is not aware of any trends, uncertainties, demands, commitments or events that are reasonably likely to have a material effect on the Company's prospects for the current financial year.

6.9 Legal and Arbitration Proceedings

Reorganisation proceedings of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat

On 31 March 2020, the Company's material indirect Subsidiary, AS Tallinna Moekombinaat, submitted an application to Harju County Court for commencement of reorganisation proceedings with the purpose to overcome temporary liquidity issues, reasonably reorganise liabilities and increase profitability. On 3 April 2020, Harju County Court initiated reorganisation proceedings and on 7 May 2020, AS Tallinna Moekombinaat submitted a reorganisation plan to its creditors. Although the majority of the creditors voted in favour of the reorganisation plan by the voting deadline (26 May 2020), the reorganisation plan was not accepted by the creditors since the largest creditor holding the largest amount of votes voted against the plan, which meant that the legal requirement to consider the plan accepted by the creditors was not met.

As more than half of the creditors in each of the creditor groups did vote in favour of the reorganisation plan, AS Tallinna Moekombinaat submitted the reorganisation plan to the court on 2 June 2020, asking it to approve the reorganisation plan without the prior acceptance by the creditors.

On 12 June 2020, the court decided to appoint two experts to evaluate the reorganisation plan by 22 July 2020 with the aim of the court being able to make a decision on the approval of the plan by 10 August 2020. The main creditor appealed the ruling, but this did not stop the expert analysis. The two experts were overall supportive to the plan, with some reservations. Both experts appointed by the court in the reorganization proceedings thoroughly analysed the economic situation of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat and concluded that the company was not permanently insolvent and the problems can be overcome with the help of reorganization.

The Tallinn District Court decided to annul the ruling of the county court in connection with the appointment of experts due to procedural issues. The district court did not find that the county court had incorrectly appointed the experts, but held that the county court should have further analysed and substantiated some of the preconditions for initiating expert proceedings. Therefore, the district court referred the matter back to the county court for a new decision. AS Tallinna Moekombinaat appealed the district court decision to the Supreme Court of Estonia.

On 14 August 2020, the county court made a new ruling in the matter. The county court terminated the reorganization proceedings because it has established that AS Tallinna Moekombinaat is allegedly permanently insolvent. AS Tallinna Moekombinaat appealed this ruling as (i) in the opinion of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat, the court found incorrectly that AS Tallinna Moekombinaat is permanently insolvent, (ii) during the reorganization procedure, the company's financial results have been better than those outlined in the reorganization plan, (iii) all the company's ongoing obligations have been fulfilled and the company continues to fulfil new obligations, (iv) the county court contradicts both the logic of the Reorganization Act and the previous practice of the Estonian Supreme Court (on the one hand a company cannot be reorganized without insolvency and, on the other hand, companies with payment problems cannot be reorganized) and (v) in the opinion of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat, the court ruling lacked reasoning and analysis as to why the court found AS Tallinna Moekombinaat to be permanently insolvent. According to the position of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat, the county court has insufficiently analysed and assessed the arguments and evidence submitted by AS Tallinna Moekombinaat. AS Tallinna Moekombinaat has provided the court with statements and evidence which clearly show that the financial difficulties of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat are temporary. In addition to AS Tallinna Moekombinaat, three creditors of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat also appealed the court ruling, finding also, that the court has incorrectly come to the understanding that AS Tallinna Moekombinaat is permanently insolvent.

During such disputing, the reorganization proceedings shall continue and the consequences of initiating the reorganization proceedings shall continue to apply to AS Tallinna Moekombinaat.

In the worst-case scenario, if the reorganization proceedings fail and AS Tallinna Moekombinaat goes bankrupt, AS Pro Kapital Eesti will have to record losses in the maximum amount of 26 million euros which include losses from unpaid principal loan amounts in the amount of up to 22.2 million euros, unpaid interest balance in the amount of up to 3.0 million euros, unpaid invoices in the amount of up to 0.3 million euros and the portion of equity of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat in the amount of up to 0.2 million euros as at 30 September 2020. The total negative effect to the Group would be 39 million euros (including initial investment into the share capital of the Subsidiary). The bankruptcy of AS Tallinna Moekombinaat would not affect liquidity of the group nor the short-term cash flows of the Company. The situation would influence the long-term cash flows to the extent of loan and interest payments.

The 14 August 2020 ruling of the county court does not in any way affect the day-to-day operations of the T1 Mall of Tallinn.

Should the reorganisation proceedings fail, AS Tallinna Moekombinaat will likely be declared bankrupt, as the main creditor Lintgen has submitted a bankruptcy petition regarding AS Tallinna Moekombinaat which has been suspended until the reorganization proceedings are terminated and a ruling on such termination has come into force.

Please see also the risk factor “Risks related to ongoing reorganisation proceedings in AS Tallinna Moekombinaat” in Section 3 (“Risk Factors”) above.

Administrative court cases of AS Pro Kapital Eesti

AS Pro Kapital Eesti has two interlinked administrative court cases in progress. In the first court case, the company is requesting nullification of a decision of the Land Board whereby a cadastral unit located in Tallinn was not registered. On 27 March 2020, the Tallinn District Court decided in favour of AS Pro Kapital Eesti and ruled that the Land Board should make a new decision or should invalidate its original 30 April 1999 decision from the privatisation era. On 27 April 2020, the Land Board appealed the District Court’s decision to the Supreme Court. On 8 September 2020, the Supreme Court resolved to hear the case in written proceedings and gave AS Pro Kapital Eesti until 6 October 2020 to respond to the Land Board’s appeal. As at the date of this Prospectus, the Supreme Court has not yet made a ruling on the matter.

The second court case is a claim of compensation against the state in relation to the same cadastral unit. Court proceedings have been halted until a final court decision takes effect in the above mentioned court case. In case the Supreme Court takes the matter for review and decides in favour of the Land Board or if the Land Board should render its original decision from privatisation time invalid, AS Pro Kapital Eesti will have unjustly paid land tax from this cadastral portion of land. The company shall then have a right to claim compensation for EUR 192,336 of land tax paid in excess during 2004–2018 and EUR 733,450 for the purchase price paid by the company for the relevant land plot.

Other

Other than as set forth above, the Company has not, during the previous twelve months, been involved in and is not aware of, any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings that have had or may have, significant effects on the Company’s or the Group’s financial position or profitability. Nor is the Company aware of any such proceedings that are pending or threatening and that could lead to the Company or any member of the Group becoming a part to such proceedings.

- 2.6. Each Investor acknowledges that the transfer of the Bonds by the Investor might under certain conditions qualify as a public offer of securities or require an authorisation for relevant authorities, in which case the offer has to be registered with the competent authority in the jurisdiction where the Bonds are (publicly) offered. Each Investor undertakes not to offer or transfer the Bonds if this would constitute a public offer of securities or require an authorisation of any kind under applicable law, unless the offer or transfer of the Bonds has been registered with the competent authorities, respective authorisation has been obtained or is subject to an exemption from the registration and any other authorisation. The Register may temporarily block the Bonds on the securities account to ensure performance of corporate actions regarding the Bonds.

- 3.10. The Issuer or any person associated with the Issuer may, subject to applicable law, at any time and at any price purchase any or all of the Bonds from one or more of the Investors. The Bonds held by the Issuer or any person associated with the Issuer may, at the sole discretion of the holder, be retained, sold or, if held by the Issuer, cancelled.

In case of an additional Tranche, the Issuer shall offer the option to subscribe for the Bonds only to the Existing Bondholders who have not yet subscribed for the Bonds in full (i.e. not yet exchanged all of their Existing Bonds for the Bonds) by sending a respective notice and determining the Additional Subscription Date. In all other aspects, Sections 2.3, 2.5 and 4.1 - 4.6 shall apply to the subscription for the Bonds to the issued in the additional Tranche.

 - 5.5. The Bonds which have been allocated according to the Issue Terms shall be registered on the securities account opened with the Register and specified in the Subscription Application on the Value Date. The Bonds may initially also be registered on the securities account of the Issuer and thereafter transferred to the securities account specified in the Subscription Application or another securities account opened in the name of the relevant Existing Bondholder. For the sake of clarity, the latter option would only be used for technical reasons, i.e. to facilitate the registration of the Bonds on a securities account held by Clearstream Banking AG. In such case, (i) the Bonds would be held on the Issuer's securities account for up to 15 Business Days and only for the purpose of transferring the Bonds to the securities account held by Clearstream Banking AG as specified in the Subscription Application or another securities account opened in the name of the relevant Existing Bondholder, (ii) the Issuer shall not be deemed to provide any services in relation to holding the Bonds and (iii) the Existing Bondholder shall be deemed to have acquired the Bonds on the Value Date. - 6.2. Interest shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of 12 (twelve) months of 30 (thirty) days each and, in case of an incomplete month, the actual number of days elapsed (30/360-days basis).
- 6.3. Interest is calculated up to and including each Payment Date. The accrued interest is payable twice a year on the Payment Dates. The final interest payment shall be made on the Redemption Date or the date of Early Redemption in full.

7. REDEMPTION

- 7.1. The Issuer shall redeem the Bonds on the Redemption Date by making the Redemption Payment to each Investor holding the Bonds.
- 7.2. The Issuer may, at its sole discretion, redeem the Bonds fully or partially before the Redemption Date by notifying the Investors thereof at least 15 (fifteen) Business Days prior to the date of the Early Redemption, provided that the Issuer has fully redeemed the senior secured callable fixed rate bonds 2020/2024 (ISIN code SE0013801172) before the date of the Early Redemption or obtained a waiver from the holders of the said bonds. In case of Early Redemption, the Issuer shall make the Redemption Payment on the date of the Early Redemption to each Investor holding the Bonds. In case of partial Early Redemption, the Issuer shall redeem a portion of the denomination value of all the Bonds pro rata.

 - 7.4. The Bonds are considered redeemed upon due performance of the Issuer's payment obligations deriving from the Bonds in accordance with the Issue Terms, including Redemption Payments in accordance with Section 7 and interest payments in accordance with Section 6, both payments made in accordance with Section 8.
 - 7.5. Once the Bonds are duly redeemed, they will be deleted from the Register based solely on the application submitted by the Issuer to the Register. Without prejudice to the foregoing, if any confirmation or action by the Investors is nevertheless required by the Register, the Investors undertake to immediately, but not later than within 3 (three) Business Days as of redemption of the Bonds, facilitate such deletion (inter alia, to ensure that the owner of the nominee account shall facilitate such deletion). Each Investor hereby irrevocably authorises the Issuer to sign and submit any documents on behalf of and in the name of the Investor to the Register to facilitate such deletion.

8. PAYMENTS

- 8.1. All payments to the Investors in connection with the Issue shall be made in euros to the current account linked to the securities account opened with the Register on which the Investor's Bonds are held.

For the avoidance of doubt, interest is calculated up to and including the Payment Date and payable in such an amount, irrespective of the actual date when the interest is paid to the Investor.
- 8.4. If the Issuer fails to make the Redemption Payment on its due date, default interest shall accrue on the overdue amount at a rate equal to the interest rate specified in Section 6. No default interest shall accrue where the failure to make the Redemption Payment was solely attributable to the Register or the Investor (inter alia, if the current account data in the Register was incorrect).
- 8.5. The Issuer shall withhold income tax from interest payments in cases and to the extent required by the laws of the Republic of Estonia. Other than that, the Investors must declare and pay income tax or any other applicable tax themselves in accordance with applicable laws. For the avoidance of doubt, if any withholdings or deductions are made by the Issuer in accordance with this Section, the withholdings or deductions shall be made on the account of the Investor with the Issuer having no obligation to compensate the withheld or deducted tax amounts to the Investor. Should an applicable treaty for the avoidance of double taxation set forth lower withholding rates than those otherwise applicable to the interest payment under the domestic laws of the Republic of Estonia, the respective Investor shall be requested to provide the documents necessary for application of the respective treaty (including, but not limited to, residence certificate issued or attested by the tax authority of the residence state of the Investor) at least 15 (fifteen) Business Days prior to the payment.
