1 Risk factors related to Raydius GmbH

This section describes the material and specific risks of Raydius GmbH (the "Issuer").

These following risk factors are presented in risk categories (section 1.1 to section 1.4) depending on their nature whereby in each risk category and in case of more than one risk factor, the most material risks according to the Issuer are set out first and highlighted and printed in bold.

The assessment of materiality of each risk factor has been made by the Issuer as of the date of this Universal Registration Document on the basis of the probability of their occurrence and the expected magnitude of their negative impact.

The Issuer will also put into relation the likelihood of the risk crystallising and the related impact (see description below (for example: the higher the likelihood, the higher the risk)) in order for investors to assess the specific materiality and the impact of the relevant risk.

1.1 Risks related to the issuer's financial situation

1.1.1 Credit risks

Investors are exposed to the risk of insolvency as a result of the Issuer's over-indebtedness or inability to pay. The Issuer does not have any material assets.

There is the risk that the Issuer cannot, or cannot entirely, fulfil its obligations under the securities to be issued (the "Securities"). Therefore, prospective investors should take into account the Issuer's credit standing in their investment decisions. The credit risk is the risk of the Issuer's inability to pay or illiquidity, i.e. the possible temporary or permanent inability to fulfil its payment obligations in due time. Potential investors should also consider that the proceeds received from investors under Securities issued under the Base Prospectus relating to Turbo Warrants dated 29 May 2019 and under any successor prospectus to the Base Prospectus relating to Turbo Warrants dated 29 May 2019 remain mainly with Brightpool Limited ("Brightpool") in order to satisfy Brightpool's claims against the Issuer under the Hedge Service Agreement. As a result, only a small part of such issue proceeds remain with the Issuer.

Prospective investors should take into account that the Issuer's credit standing may change during the term of the Securities due to developments in the overall economic environment or in the company-specific environment. This may, in particular, be caused by cyclical fluctuations which may affect the Issuer's profitability and solvency in the long term. Other impacting factors may be, for example, economic crises and political developments that have a strong impact on the economy as a whole and the Issuer in particular. These factors may lead to a lower issuance volume, adversely affect the Issuer's performance as any profit of the Issuer is materially dependent on the issuance of Securities and consequently negatively impact the Issuer's credit standing.

Pursuant to the Issuer's articles of association (the "Articles of Association"), the purpose of the business of the Issuer of the Securities is the issuance and sale of Securities and related activities. The Issuer's liable share capital amounts to EUR 25,000.00. As compared to issuers with significantly higher capital, the investors are exposed to a significantly greater credit risk.

If the credit risk described herein crystallises it has a material adverse affect on the Securities and investors may take the risk of a total loss. The higher the likelihood of an insolvency of the Issuer, the higher the risk of a total loss.

1.1.2 Risks related to uncollateralized securities in case of insolvency proceedings

The Securities issued by the Issuer which are in particular structured products are not collateralised and the holders of the Securities (hereafter "Securityholders") do not have a preferential entitlement to any assets of the Issuer. It is rather the case that other creditors of the Issuer may claim these assets by way of enforcement (Zwangsvollstreckung) in order to satisfy their claims against the Issuer. In the case of insolvency proceedings regarding the assets of the Issuer, the claims of these other creditors against the Issuer would rank pari passu with the claims under the Securities. As a result, other creditors of the Issuer compete with the Securityholders for the Issuer's assets. The Issuer does not have any material assets. Pursuant to the financial statements as of 31 May 2021 the assets of the Issuer consists of receivables and other assets in the amount of 1,397,942.17 Euro and cash equivalents in the amount of 703,084.45 Euro. On the other hand liabilities of the Issuer were 1,987,912.53 Euro. The equity of the Issuer amounts to 115,776.17 Euro. Consequently, if the Issuer's assets are not sufficient to satisfy the claims of all creditors, there is the risk that the Securityholders' claims under the Securities remain wholly or partly unsatisfied resulting in a potential total loss of the investors' investment. The higher the likelihood of insolvency proceedings against the Issuer's assets, the higher the risk of a total loss. Further, the more other creditors are competing with the Securityholders, the lesser is the potential recovery for Securityholders resulting in a higher loss.

1.2 Risks associated with the Issuer's organisation

The Issuer is set up as an issuance vehicle with the purpose to issue and sell Securities. It does not have its own employees and/or substantial own infrastructure. All material administrative tasks are performed on behalf of the Issuer by third parties with which the Issuer has entered into corresponding agreements. All of these agreements may be terminated observing different notice periods. If such an agreement is terminated by a contractual partner or by the Issuer, the fulfilment of the obligations under the Securities will depend on the Issuer's ability to find other persons that are willing to perform the aforementioned administrative tasks in lieu of the previous contractual partner and to enter into equivalent agreements with these persons.

Further, any operational issues (e.g. IT malfunction, system breakdowns, human error or failed processes) arising at the contractual partner which the Issuer has engaged in relation to its business activities may also crystallize with the Issuer. The Issuer relies substantially on the operational fitness of its contractual partner and bears any risk related thereto.

These risks may have a negative impact on the Issuer's ability to fulfill its obligations under the Securities (e.g. process payments) or the fulfillment of its respective obligations may take longer. The more difficult it is to find a replacement contractual partner or for the contractual partner to resolve operational issues, the longer the related organisational risks may continue and the higher the potential loss for investors.

1.3 No guarantee and/or deposit protection

The obligations – in particular the fulfilment of any payment obligations – of the Issuer are not guaranteed by a third party, i.e. Securityholders do not have a direct claim against a third party under, amongst others, a surety or a guarantee. The creditors' claims under the Securities are not collateralised (see the specific risk set out in section 1.1.2 above). Securityholders will also not have any direct claim against Market Data Limited relating to the Securities based on keep well agreements provided by Market Data Limited.

In addition, the Issuer has not joined a deposit protection fund or similar protection or compensation scheme which would wholly or partly cover the Securityholders' claims in the case of the Issuer's insolvency. Securities issued in bearer form are neither covered by the German Deposit Protection and Investor Compensation Act (Einlagensicherungs- und Anlegerentschädigungsgesetz) nor by the Deposit Protection Fund of the Federal Association of German Banks (Einlagensicherungsfonds des Bundesverbands Deutscher Banken). In the event of insolvency of the Issuer, investors may therefore experience a total loss of their investment in the Securities. The higher the likelihood of an insolvency of the Issuer, the higher the risk of a total loss.

1.4 Risks associated with the Issuer's business activities and industry

1.4.1 Market risks

The Issuer mainly engages in the issuance and sale of Securities. The Issuer's activities and its annual issuance volume are adversely impacted by negative developments in the markets in which the Issuer carries out its business activities. A difficult overall economic situation may result in a lower issuance volume and adversely affect the Issuer's performance as any profit of the Issuer is materially dependent on the issuance of Securities.

The general market performance of securities depends especially on the development of the capital markets, which in turn are impacted by the situation of the global economy and the economic and political conditions in the relevant countries (market risk). As a consequence the profit of the Issuer may be negatively impacted and even result in an overall loss for the Issuer. This in turn may lead to a credit risk as described in section 1.1 above. The more likely such market risk, the higher the probability of such market risk turning into a credit risk negatively affecting the ability of the Issuer to make payments under the Securities.

1.4.2 Counterparty risks

The Issuer exclusively enters into hedging arrangements in order to hedge its obligations under the Securities with connected entities. Consequently, the Issuer is firstly exposed to the risk that such counterparty is not able to make payments under such hedging arrangement resulting ultimately in a default of the Issuer under the related Securities. Secondly, the Issuer is exposed to a cluster and concentration risk as compared to a broader variety of contractual partners. As at the date of this Universal Registration Document the Issuer entered into hedging agreements with Brightpool only. In this context, cluster or concentration risk means the default risk which may arise from the limited selection of contractual parties to the relevant hedging arrangements. There is the risk that the inability to pay or insolvency of entities connected with the Issuer directly results in the Issuer's inability to make any payments under the Securities. The effect on the Securityholders is further described in section 1.1.1 (Credit risks) above.

The higher the likelihood that the counterparty to the hedging arrangements runs into default, the more likely a default of the Issuer under the Securities itself which may have a negative impact on the Securities and even result in a total loss for investors.

(a) Hedge Service Agreement

The following section sets out a brief summary of the so-called hedge service agreement entered into on 14 August 2019 between the Issuer and Brightpool Limited ("Brightpool") having its registered office at 169-171 Arch. Makarios III Avenue, Cedars Oasis Tower, 9th Floor, Office 902, 3027, Limassol, Cyprus (in relation to such agreement the "Dealer") (such agreement as amended from time to time the "Hedge Service Agreement").

According to the Hedge Service Agreement, the Issuer and the Dealer will agree from time to time that the Issuer issues Securities and the Dealer purchases such Securities. In case the Issuer and the Dealer agree on the purchase of Securities, the Dealer will be obliged to pay the relevant purchase price to the Issuer. The Dealer will partially on-transfer the issue price received from the Securityholders to the Issuer in order to discharge its obligation to pay the purchase price and set-off the greater part with its own claims against the Issuer. The Dealer will in turn procure to enter into appropriate hedging arrangements and will discharge the Issuer's obligations under the Securities when due and payable. This Hedge Service Agreement only applies for Turbo Warrants issued under the Base Prospectus relating to Turbo Warrants dated 29 May 2019 and under any successor prospectus to the Base Prospectus relating to Turbo Warrants dated 29 May 2019.

In this respect, the Keep Well Agreement (as defined and described below 4.2.20(c)) between MDL as provider and Brightpool should be considered.

(b) Agency Agreement

The following section sets out a brief summary of the agency agreement entered into on 8 April 2019 between the Issuer and Citibank Europe plc (in relation to such agreement the "Paying Agent" and "Issuing Agent") (such agreement as amended from time to time the "Agency Agreement").

According to the Agency Agreement, the Issuing Agent will be responsible for the submission of the Global Securities to the Clearing System. The Paying Agent will be responsible to pay sums due under the Securities on behalf of the Issuer. In order to provide for any payments to be made in respect of the Securities as the same shall become due and payable, the Issuer shall in advance pay to the Paying Agent an amount equal to the amount then becoming due in respect of the Securities.

(c) Keep Well Agreements

The following section sets out a brief summary of the keep well agreements entered into between Market Data Limited ("MDL") as provider and each of the Issuer and Brightpool (the "Keep Well Agreements"). Investors should note that each Keep Well Agreement is entered into for the benefit of the Issuer and Brightpool, respectively, only. Securityholders will not have any direct claim against MDL in respect of the Keep Well Agreements:

According to the Keep Well Agreement (governed by the laws and under the jurisdiction of the courts of England & Wales) entered into between MDL and the Issuer, MDL has agreed to provide continued financial support to the Issuer to ensure that the Issuer is able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due, in particular, its financial obligations in relation to any issued but outstanding Securities under the Base Prospectus relating to

Turbo Warrants dated 29 May 2019 and under any successor prospectus to the Base Prospectus relating to Turbo Warrants dated 29 May 2019 and its financial obligations in relation to any other securities issued by the Issuer, provided that the Issuer suffers losses such that the Issuer has insufficient funds to enable it to meet such financial obligations in order to continue operating as a going concern, i.e. the Issuer is not receiving the respective funds from Brightpool under the Hedge Service Agreement (as defined and described above).

According to the Keep Well Agreement (governed by the laws and under the jurisdiction of the courts of England & Wales) entered into between MDL and Brightpool, MDL has agreed to provide continued financial support to and for the benefit of Brightpool to ensure that Brightpool is able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due, in particular, in relation to Brightpool's obligations under the Hedge Service Agreement, provided that Brightpool suffers losses such that Brightpool has insufficient funds to enable it to meet such financial obligations in order to continue operating as a going concern. Brightpool has been provided with the Keep Well Agreement by MDL as it is possible that Brightpool may not, in all circumstances or market conditions, have sufficient capital or assets of its own to meet all of its obligations to the Issuer under the Hedge Service Agreement.
