Central Bank of Ireland Issues Warning on Unauthorised Firm – WCA Private Bank

19 December 2022 Warning Notice

It has come to the Central Bank of Ireland's ('Central Bank') attention that a firm calling itself WCA Private Bank (Ireland) – <https://www.wcaprivatebank.com/> (no longer in operation) has been holding itself out as a banker in the State in the absence of an appropriate authorisation.

A list of unauthorised firms published to date is available on the Central Bank website.

It is a criminal offence for an unauthorised firm to provide financial services in and from Ireland that would require an authorisation under the relevant legislation for which the Central Bank is the responsible body for enforcing. Consumers should be aware, that if they deal with a firm that is not authorised, they are not eligible for compensation from the Investor Compensation Scheme.

Fraudsters are increasingly using legitimate firms' details to add an air of legitimacy to their fraud. The fraudsters will 'borrow' some or all of the legitimate information of an authorised / legitimate firm for the purpose of this fraud. They may quote authorisation numbers / company registration numbers and links to seemingly legitimate websites and even provide the real address of an authorised / legitimate firm. Consumers are advised to check our register to verify a firm's details and to call the firm back directly using its advertised phone number.

For further information, please visit the Avoiding Scams and Unauthorised Activity section of the Central Bank's website.

Any person wishing to contact the Central Bank with information regarding such firms / persons may telephone (01) 224 4000. This line is also available to the public to check if a firm is authorised. Since obtaining the necessary legal powers in August 1998, the names of 426 unauthorised firms have been published by the Central Bank.

Notes to editors

The name of the above firm is published under the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013.
